

The Richmond Golf Club

Dress Code

Simplified Dress Code

It is the responsibility of all Members that they and their guests wear clean clothing while playing golf; and they wear clean, dry clothing and shoes when in the Clubhouse.

PLAYING GOLF/ ON THE COURSE

1. All players must wear golf shoes with socks, a top with a collar, trousers, shorts, skirt/skort please note tracksuit bottoms or leggings are not permitted. Golf caps to be worn with the peak facing forward. We trust in the good taste of our Members regarding colour and coordination of clothing. Football/rugby heavily logo'd attire is not permitted
2. Sleeveless golf shirts/blouses must have a collar and collarless shirts/blouses must have sleeves. Shirts should be tucked in unless they have been designed to be worn otherwise.
3. Tailored shorts (belt loops and a fly) and skirts, trousers are acceptable. Cargo shorts or trousers with expandable pockets, rugby shorts, sweat pants, jogging pants, jeans; dirty, torn or Ripped clothing are Not acceptable.

IN THE CLUBHOUSE/ FUNCTIONS

1. Clubhouse dress regulations will apply to all areas in and around the clubhouse (including the car park). Beach wear (flip-flops, sliders or Jesus sandals for men) are not allowed. Shoes worn on the course must not be worn in the clubhouse; please change and use clean shoes. No Wellington boots. Post golf dirty or wet clothing/waterproofs are not permitted in any of the public rooms
2. Tailored shorts (belt loops and a fly) and skirts/skorts, trousers are acceptable. Cargo shorts or trousers with expandable pockets, rugby shorts, sweat pants, jogging pants; dirty, torn or ripped clothing are not acceptable. Sleeveless golf shirts/blouses must have a collar and collarless Shirts/blouses must have sleeves. All Polo style Shirts should be tucked in at all times. Tailored shirts, designed to be worn outside trousers are allowed. Wet/muddy clothing or waterproofs are not permitted.
3. For functions, taking place in the marquee, a suitable dress code can be agreed in advance with the events manager, taking into account, timings of the event and the age/demographic of the guests attending the function.

Please be respectful of the above guidelines, which are there to help maintain standards, in and around the Clubhouse and on the course.

John R Maquire

General Manager
TRGCL